Stabbing/vehicle collision

Jessup, 20794: 7900 block of Washington Blvd., 8 p.m.

Police are investigating two incidents from the evening of Oct. 3 that appear to be related. Officers were called to the 7900 block of Washington Blvd. in Jessup just after 8 p.m. where they found a 45-year-old man lying on a sidewalk suffering from non-life threatening stab wounds. Around the same time, officers were called to the scene of a vehicle crashed into a pole a few blocks away on Washington Blvd., where they found a 24-year-old male driver suffering from non-life threatening crash-related injuries.

Investigators believe that the two men were together at some point, perhaps with an additional subject or subjects. It is unclear at this time who assaulted the stabbing victim or why the vehicle struck a pole. Both men were taken to Shock Trauma for treatment. Police are continuing to investigate.
